A YEARBOOK REMEMBERS . . .

FACULTY OF NURSING,
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO,
50 ST. GEORGE ST., TORONTO

FROM THE DEAN . . .

Congratulations to each member of the Class of 8T0.

As you move to a new stage of your lives, each of you takes with you the good wishes of the Faculty. You go equipped with knowledge and understanding which can influence the quality of others. The responsibility is yours to use and develop these talents for caring with compassion and accountability. May you find joy in the challenge.

We look forward to continuing association with you over the years.

DEAN PHYLLIS JONES

... THE PREZ

At the risk of receiving scorn from my fellow 1979-80 Council members, I would like to spend a few lines talking about apathy. This word was erased from the Faculty of Nursing Student Council's vocabulary at its first meeting in April 1979. In place of this word and its related negative connotations, the Council as a whole adopted a strong, resilient and indispensable commitment to positivism and optimism not merely as an end but as a means as well.

Strong, resilient and indispensable, the Council members battled for the end of apathy. The battle, in my eyes, only served to prove that in effect, apathy does not exist within our nursing student body. What does exist is a group of students separated by a variety of interests, concerns and lifestyles; a group of students joined by common dedication to nursing and health care. The Student's Council was able to develop and encourage all encompassing activities and participation.

A student's council belongs to those people who pay council fees: the students. The Council cannot however, fulfill its mandate as the student voice without input from the student body. Communication between the nursing students and the Student Council is crucial to the fulfillment of the Council's role not only within the University Faculty of Nursing but the University of Toronto as a whole. The Faculty of Nursing Student Council is yours - use it. Help it. Make it work for you.

I would like to take this opportunity to extend sincere thanks and congratulations to each and every member of the 1979-80 FNSC for their diligence, devotion, and patience. Five years have passed since I first sat in a Nursing 100 class somewhat frightened, somewhat excited, somewhat confused. The story of my journey through student politics has been punctuated and underlined by involvement in student politics countrywide, province wide, campus wide and in retrospect, my 20/20 hindsight convinces me that the experience was invaluable and unregrettable. After all - student council is fun, REMEMBER!?!

CAROLYN CALDWELL, President FNSC

EVENTS

ORIENTATION

This year's orientation had many memorable moments for both fosh and upperclass-women alike. The enthusiasm started rolling on Tuesday when all nurses became the guests of the fun-loving (and nurse-loving)! engineers.

Thursday's events included a paper-hunt, songs, kidnappers, dinner at Frank's and our famous walkabout.

Friday was the SAC roam-a-round while Saturday included a scavenger hunt during which time Silversteins "lost" a truck. Sunday ended the week with a trip to Hart House Farm. Attendance was great, spirits ran high and everyone had a fantastic time!!!

NURS

I think I'm going to like nursing!!!

This frame was reserved for Anne "I love U of T Police" Sloan. Unfortunately, our leader was making many visits to the Clarke and was unable to pose for our camera.

WINE AND CHEESE PARTY

The Faculty of Nursing wine and chese party is given annually by the Student Council social committee and is an excellent opportunity for students to meet teaching staff as well as students in other classes.

This year's party was held at Hart House on November 7, 1979. All seemed to have a pleasant evening and some left in quite high spirits! Although this affair is considered to be "skirts and dresses," the basketball team proved that one can be just as gracious in sweat pants and T-shirt.

Unfortunately, very few staff members were able to attend and it is hoped that many more will be available in the coming year.

Elegant sweat pants, Jan!

Note the camera-shy two in front.

Peek-a-boo!

PUBBING . . .

We learned a lot. We partied a lot. We danced a lot. We laughed a lot. This year was definitely a year for enthusiasm and fun as reflected by the great success of our Nursing pubs. The fun began with the extremely successful Shinerama Pub followed by three more memorable pubs.

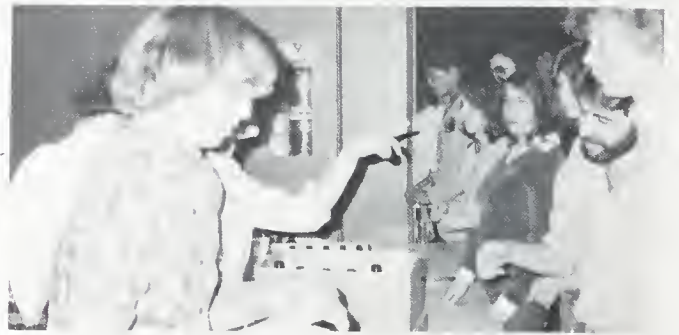

Attendance was fantastic, including students from all years and all faculties and the enthusiasm spread onto the dance floor which was seldom uncrowded.

Many thanks to Anne and the social committee who worked very hard to keep the fun rolling and to the BFC for their help.

Let's hope that next year's nurses continue to show the enthusiasm and spirit that they've come to be known for this year!!!

PUB CARE PLAN

PROBLEMS	GOALS	INTERVENTIONS	EVALUATION
Priority 1: Guests Poor nurse-guest communication due to guest's inability to talk	Guest will be able to express his needs	a) ask guest to repeat and gesture b) give him pencil and paper c) if this fails - ignore him	gesturing seemed to work best until guest passed out
Priority 2: Bar Inability of first years to pour beer 5 4" head	First years will learn how to pour beer correctly	a) ↑ motivation by pointing gun to their heads b) teach them in short, well-outlined sessions c) organize material in a manner that contains the most meaning for them	first years learned very quickly and were a great help behind the bar
Priority 3: Bartender Possible insanity due to writing pub cure plans	Bartender will remain sane after writing this plan	a) give splashes of cold water b) orient bartender to person, time and place c) watch for side effects of antipsychotic drugs	Interventions ineffective - bartender admitted to Clarke after pub

SPORTS

Sports at the Faculty had a great start this year under the leadership of head jock Chris Kalin.

Nursing contributed a total of nine teams and fifty-five participants to the intramural organization.

Chris received help with the leadership duties from the two able-bodied men pictured here. Their teams were lucky that they know the fine art of coaching better than that of dressing!

The sports field consisted of football, field hockey, basketball, soccer, volleyball, squash, broomball and badminton.

Special note goes to the football and recreational basketball teams for their achievements of reaching the semifinals in their respective leagues.

The other teams were unable to go quite so far in the standings, but did contribute to the 321 points the Faculty of Nursing achieved in the Maury Parks standings for participation. Good work everyone!

Two other notable achievements were made by Pat Morris and Laura Damph. These two women were members of the varsity teams of figure skating and basketball respectively.

This year also marked the beginning of the Nursing athletic awards.

A total of fifteen points for sports participation was necessary to win this athletic award and there were seven winners during the 79-80 year. Congratulations to: Whendie Coopman, Roxanne Floyd, Janet Legge, Chris Kalin, Becky Snyder, Kerri Vandersluis and Judy VanWyck.

THE FORMAL . . .

On the eve of March 21, 1980, the nurses of U. of T. packed up their books as students and profs alike set out for the Royal York Hotel. After a short (!) speech by our social director, the evening began with a feast and all were soon eager to rock 'n roll, twist 'n shout as the dance floor came alive to the music of Toronto Harbour. While the night drew to a magical end, laughter, friendship and fun would be remembered by all.

Toronto Harbour provided musical background for the evening. Their diversified talent enabled us to indulge in everything from rock, disco and country, to our beloved (!) polkas. Needless to say, we danced (?) away the evening. . .

. . . while
band played on.

CUNSA . . .

CUNSA is the "Canadian University Nursing Students Association." We've seen a lot of our CUNSA Reps this year; Senior Rep, Christina Rosmus and Junior Rep, Liz Henderson. They introduced us to CUNSA in the first week of school by distributing a pamphlet and worked terribly hard on a fund raising campaign to subsidize their trip to the conference hosted by the University of Manitoba in February.

Christina and Liz busied themselves with a pub, raffles, and a plant sale (pictured above) and before they knew it, they and 19 others were off to Winnipeg for a weekend of sharing on the topic of "The Role of the Nurse in Death and Dying." Speakers included Joe Flaherty, Marie Vashon, Lesley Segner, Jane Beaton, and Ouinh Benaliel, who spoke about the many roles of the nurse as applied to the dying patient. The conference also included social activities and in general, a good time was had by all.

Christina and Liz encourage all students attend at least one CUNSA conference in their four years at U of T and judging by their enthusiasm it certainly appears to be worthwhile.

Thanks for all your hard work and dedication, ladies.

EDUCATION COMMITTEE . . .

For the first time in years, the Faculty of Nursing has regained its Education Committee headed by Commissioner, Grace Cleto. They have been a busy group giving Tea-Musicales and discussion groups for the furthering of education in the Faculty.

Their first event of the academic year was the "January Tea Musicale." Those who attended were entertained by each sub-committee with fashion, comedy and song followed by a scrumptious buffet of assorted home baked goodies. Everyone enjoyed the afternoon immensely. Other endeavours were attempted but were not entirely successful.

They finished up the year with a small celebration and "summing up" meeting. In this writer's opinion, the committee did a bang up job and I'm looking forward to next year's activities with anticipation.

Here's to you, Education Committee, for a job well done!

FROM THE EDITOR . . .

WHOOPEE!! We made it. And I couldn't have done it without your support and confidence.

As you read this endeavour, it will have been three and a half months since the completion of Vivere '80, the first in a new series of U of T Faculty of Nursing yearbooks. In general, we slaved over grid paper, went crazy over copy, dreamt about layout and pulled out all our hair trying to make our deadline . . . but we did it! Now we can reap the harvest of our efforts.

Seriously though folks, I have enjoyed editing the 1980 Vivere and have gained a bountiful of experience for next years edition. So if you like this year's book, JUST WAIT 'TIL NEXT YEAR!

Your editor,

Mg McAllister

TOIKEN ENGINEERING

As tradition continues, U of T nurses still have their name linked with the all too famous engineers. The fun began with orientation: D.J.'s, the Bnad, engineering raids and partying. Many an unsuspecting frosh had her name linked with an engineer . . .

Engineering students and the BFC continued to support nursing functions during the year and accounted for the majority of funds received at pubs and other social events due to their enormous appetites for ale.

From those who've enjoyed your company, we express our thanks and hope for continuing relationships (?) See you at D.J.'s on Friday!

CELEBRATION

GRADUATION TEA

One of the final events of the academic year was the Graduation Tea held by the Faculty in honor of the class of 1980.

It was at this time that the graduation honor pins were presented. This year's recipients were: Carolyn Caldwell, Lucy Favret, Sharlene Gregg, Kim McQuade, Elizabeth Nekus, Christina Rosmus and Barbara Taylor.

Barbara Taylor was also presented with the annual Frances Jeckell Memorial award for the spirit and leadership she has provided.

GRADUATION BALL

The graduation ball of 1980 was held at the Sutton Place Hotel on May 10, 1980.

A special thank you goes to Lucy Favret and the grad committee for planning a very memorable evening.
